

BREAKING INTO COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE INVESTING

ABOUT ME

From Lemonade Stands to Landmark Deals – Meet Pam Goodwin

Pam Goodwin has been making deals since her first lemonade stand! Now a powerhouse in commercial real estate, she's the founder of Goodwin Commercial, an award-winning boutique firm specializing in single-tenant net-leased properties. With 30+ years of experience, she's worked with top brands like Walgreens, McDonald's, and Chase Bank, and spearheaded the development of 50+ pad sites for Chili's and On the Border while at Brinker International.

A best-selling author and industry leader, Pam has been featured in Bisnow and Dallas Business Journal and holds titles like Texas Icon (RedNews) and D CEO Power Broker. She serves as Chair of her city's Zoning Board of Adjustment, is a Forbes Real Estate Council member, and mentors the next generation of commercial real estate pros.

A proud Nebraska Cornhusker and breast cancer survivor, Pam shares her journey to inspire others. She loves traveling (especially to Croatia to visit family), working out, and spending time with her husband and two adult sons.
